

THE MONDAY

REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD.
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

February 15, 1982

Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Record Series

File: EG 1-12-15

Date: 9-28-95

EARLY REGISTRATION SCHEDULED

Early registration for Spring Quarter at Shelton State is scheduled for February 17-24 from 9 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Registration on February 17 will be held in the junior college auditorium. Registration will be held the rest of the time in the front hall across from the admissions office.

Counselors will be available during this time to answer any questions.

SHELTON FACULTY ATTEND WRITING LAB CONFERENCE AT U OF A

The Southeastern Writing Lab Conference was held at the University of Alabama recently drawing several Shelton faculty members. Joyce Jolly, Brenda Ryan, Carol Hoffman, Jim Kenney, and Dan DeBoard represented Shelton State.

Dr. Gary Olson, director of the writing lab at the University of Alabama, was in charge of the conference. Speakers from various schools and colleges across the United States were on the agenda; papers were delivered from writing labs across the Southeast. The purpose of the seminar was to improve the teaching of personal composition and exchange knowledge on how writing labs work.

SHELTON HOSTS APGA DISTRICT III MEETING

The winter meeting of the District III Alabama Personnel and Guidance Association was held last Tuesday, February 9, from 4-6:30 p.m. in the Shelton State auditorium. The dinner and meeting was held in conjunction with the Technical Division. Mary Ann Bryant (Tuscaloosa County High School) is president of the group. Shelton's Dr. Randall Jarrell holds the office of treasurer.

AEROBIC DANCING T-SHIRTS FOR SALE. ONLY A FEW ARE LEFT. IF INTERESTED, CONTACT CHEREE CAUSEY?

SCHOLARS READY FOR SCHOLAR BOWL

Twenty teams from the West Alabama area will compete for the chance to represent this area in the Scholar Bowl competition to be held at Shelton State on Wednesday, February 24.

The winner of the local tournament will represent the area in the district competition against Brewer State. The winners in the district competition will participate in the state Alabama High School Scholar Bowl competition at the University of Alabama at Birmingham later this spring.

Last year was the first time the Scholar Bowl, a question and answer competition, was held at Shelton State.

Everyone is invited to attend the competition scheduled from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. on February 24, according to Diane Layton, chairman for the event.

U OF A OFFERS SCHOLARSHIPS

The University of Alabama National Alumni Association is now accepting recommendations for the Junior College Alumni Honors Scholarships for 1982-83. Recommendation forms are being sent to all junior colleges throughout the state in an effort to obtain names of outstanding junior college students.

The Junior College Alumni Honors Scholarship is based entirely on the student's academic ability regardless of the student's financial need. Ten scholarships will be awarded and ten alternates will be chosen. This is a $1000 per year scholarship covering a two-year period.

The deadline for recommendations will be March 15, 1982. Scholarship recipients will be notified of their selection in April 1982.

If you are interested in applying for one of these scholarships, contact Dean Umphrey's office.

DON'T FORGET!.....DR. FRANK DEAYER, PROFESSOR OF JOURNALISM AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA, WILL CONDUCT A SEMINAR FOR ALL SHELTON STUDENTS INTERESTED IN THE FIELD OF JOURNALISM OR RELATED AREAS. CONTACT DEAN LEE IF YOU ARE INTERESTED.

SHELTON SINGERS SCHEDULED CONCERT

The Shelton Singers will present their winter concert on Thursday, February 18, at 10:10 a.m. in the junior college auditorium. The program will of early music of madrigals and rounds. Featured on the program will be Shelton faculty member, David Cantrell. Mr. Cantrell will perform on the recorder, on 15-16th flute and will sing a solo.

MUSIC NOTES

The Shelton Singers performed for the Northport Lions club January 29 and the Phi Theta Kappa convention on January 31....Tommy Vaughn, Dewin Tibbs, Jenny Ambrose, and Don Stallings presented their favorite tunes from the recent production of THE FANTASTICKS for the Tuscaloosa Music Teachers Association on February 6. They were accompanied by Syble Coats..... On January 18 Mrs. Coats presented a lecture, "A Look at Debussy" for the Tuscaloosa Piano Teachers' forum. As a highlight of the program, Mrs. Coats performed a Debussy Prelude and the Violin Sonata with Mrs. Bernice Holland.

GED MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE AWARDED

Scholarships to attend Shelton State Community College, Junior College Division and Technical College (LPN program), and CA Fredd Technical College will be awarded to GED graduates.

These scholarships are being given by the Aglaia Junior Woman's Club, the Pilot club of Tuscaloosa, Shelton State Community College, Junior College Division, and CA Fredd Technical College. They will be presented at the GED Recognition ceremony at Shelton State Junior College in June. If you are interested in being considered for a scholarship to attend one of these schools, contact Dean Umphrey.

Graduates of the GED program presently enrolled in Shelton State Community College or CA Fredd may also be considered for scholarships. All applications must be returned by May 1, 1982. Final selections will be made by the GED Merit Scholarship Committee.

FEE SCHEDULE FOR SPRING QUARTER

The Alabama State Board of Education has approved the following schedule effective Spring Quarter 1982.

Per Quarter - Full-time students:
General Fee $125

Per Credit Hour Part-time students
$12.50 per credit hour (not to exceed $125 per quarter)

General Fee Schedule

Credit Hours	General Fee
1	$ 12.50
2	25.00
3	37.50
4	50.00
5	62.50
6	75.00
7	87.50
8	100.00
9	112.50
10	125.00

WINNERS ANNOUNCED IN STUDENT LIFE CONTESTS

Lorraine Lowe, secretary to Dean Umphrey, was crowned the "favorite" by the Student Life Committee at Shelton State. The election was held by the students at Shelton State Junior College during the past week. Mrs. Lowe has been at Shelton State for the past two years and was employed in the financial aid department at the University of Alabama before coming to Shelton.

Teresa Benefield was the winner of the Secret Student Life Member contest. Ms. Benefield was the 100th student to ask a student life member, "Tell me about student life."

Mrs. Lowe and Ms. Benefield win a dinner for two at the Landing. The winners were crowned at a reception last Friday in the auditorium.

AROUND SHELTON STATE

Hats off to Judy Barker and all her committee members for a job "well done" in the Miss Shelton State Pageant held this week-end. Details on the pageant and winners will be announced next week.... Kevin Walsh, professor of early childhood at the University of Alabama, was the guest speaker at the District III Alabama Personnel and Guidance Association meeting held last week. Walsh is the author of THE YOUNG SAVAGE, FROM SAVAGE TO CITIZEN and DEVELOPEMENT OF DISCIPLINE.